Security Voucher

This security voucher guarantees that the Human Resources Administration (HRA) will pay up to the equivalent of one month's rent if it is verified that the tenant who occupied the apartment failed to pay his/her rent and/or caused damage to it. The landlord must submit proof of the unpaid rent and/or damage along with the Landlord's Claim For Security Voucher Payment (on the back page) within three months after the tenant has vacated the apartment. The Agency will only make a payment if the claim is submitted within three months after the tenant has vacated the apartment and a review of the documentation submitted by the landlord confirms that the tenant failed to pay his/her rent and/or damaged the apartment. This Security Voucher will not be honored until the front and back pages have been completed, signed, notarized, and returned to HRA.

The Human Resources Administration (HRA) does not issue cash security deposits. Instead, the Agency is issuing this Security Voucher. Please be advised that refusal to accept this voucher in lieu of a security deposit may constitute source of income discrimination under the NYC Human Rights Law Sec. 8-107(5)(a)(1)-(2).
