A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your "file disclosure"). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore
- You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited "prescreened" offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).
- The following FCRA right applies with respect to nationwide consumer reporting agencies:

CONSUMERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO OBTAIN A SECURITY FREEZE

You have a right to place a "security freeze" on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit.

As an alternative to a security freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting 7 years.

A security freeze does not apply to a person or entity, or its affiliates, or collection agencies acting on behalf of the person or entity, with which you have an existing account that requests information in your credit report for the purposes of reviewing or collecting the account. Reviewing the account includes activities related to account maintenance, monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements.

- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. For information about your federal rights, contact:

A Summary of Your Additional Rights in New York

You have a right to place a "security freeze" on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer credit reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. A security freeze must be requested in writing by certified or overnight mail. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent.

To place a security freeze on your credit report, you must contact each of these credit reporting agencies:

Equifax Security Freeze

P.O. Box 105788

Atlanta, GA 30348

(800) 685-1111

<https://www.freeze.equifax.com>

Experian Security Freeze

P.O. Box 9554

Allen, TX 75013

(888) 397-3742

<https://www.experian.com/freeze/center.html>

TransUnion LLC

Chester, PA 19022-2000

(888) 909-8872

www.transunion.com/personal-credit/credit-disputes/credit-freezes.page

However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit mortgage, government services or payments, insurance, rental housing, employment, investment, license, cellular phone, utilities, digital signature, Internet credit card transaction, or other services, including an extension of credit at point of sale. When you place a security freeze on your credit report, you will be provided a personal identification number or password to use if you choose to remove the freeze on your credit report or authorize the release of your credit report to a specific party or for a period of time after the freeze is in place. To provide that authorization you must contact the consumer credit reporting agency and provide all of the following:

1. The personal identification number or password;
2. Proper identification to verify your identity;
3. The proper information regarding the party or parties who are to receive the credit report or the period of time for which the report shall be available to users of the credit report; and
4. Payment of any applicable fee.

A consumer reporting agency must authorize the release of your credit report no later than three business days after receiving the above information.

A security freeze does not apply to circumstances in which you have an existing account relationship and a copy of your report is requested by your existing creditor or its agents or affiliates for certain types of account review, collection, fraud control or similar activities.

If you are actively seeking credit, you should understand that the procedures involved in lifting a security freeze may slow your application for credit. You should plan ahead and lift a freeze, either completely if you are shopping around, or specifically for a certain creditor, before applying for new credit.

Additional rights under your state's law, which are also in the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, are explained in the enclosed Summary of Your Rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

IMPORTANT ACCOUNT INFORMATION

On June 4, 2022, PNC added a Public Injunctive Relief Waiver (the "Waiver") to the Arbitration Provision of the Account Agreement for Personal Checking, Savings and Money Market Accounts (the "Agreement"). The Waiver is included below. All other information in your Agreement continues to apply to your account.

PLEASE READ THE WAIVER CAREFULLY: IT WILL IMPACT HOW LEGAL CLAIMS YOU AND PNC HAVE AGAINST EACH OTHER ARE RESOLVED.

THE ARBITRATION PROVISION WILL APPLY TO YOUR ACCOUNT(S) UNLESS YOU OPT OUT BY PROVIDING TIMELY NOTICE AS SET FORTH IN THE ARBITRATION PROVISION OR UNLESS YOU PREVIOUSLY OPTED OUT BY PROVIDING TIMELY NOTICE AS SET FORTH IN THE ARBITRATION PROVISION.

PUBLIC INJUNCTIVE RELIEF WAIVER

If either you or we elect to arbitrate a Claim, neither you nor we will have the right to seek a public injunction, if such a waiver is permitted by the FAA. If a court decides that such a waiver is not permitted, and that decision is not reversed on appeal, any request for the remedy of a public injunction will be decided in court after all other Claims to be decided in arbitration under this Arbitration Provision are arbitrated and the arbitration award regarding such Claims has been entered in court. In no event will an arbitrator be permitted to issue a public injunction.

IMPORTANT ACCOUNT INFORMATION

Effective June 4, 2022, we are changing the "Money Owed" and "Closing the Account" sections of your Account Agreement for Personal Checking, Savings and Money Market Accounts ("Agreement"). Starting June 4, 2022, the below provisions will replace the language currently in these sections of the Agreement. All other information in your Agreement continues to apply to your account. Please read this information and keep it with your records.

THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS WILL BE EFFECTIVE STARTING JUNE 4, 2022:

Money Owed

Any loans, overdrafts, obligations or other indebtedness (except for debts arising out of bank credit cards or IRA or other tax-deferred retirement accounts, unless permitted by applicable law) now or hereafter owing to us by you, either individually or jointly, including husband and wife, may be charged in whole or in part to the Account or to any other individual or joint accounts in your name to the extent permitted by law. If you receive payment from us for an item, you agree that we may place a hold on your Account in order to investigate a claim that the item contains a forged endorsement or alteration. If, after a reasonable investigation, we find that the item contains a forged endorsement or alteration, we may charge your Account for the face value of the item.

You and any joint depositors grant us a security interest in the balance in the Account and in any other individual and joint accounts in your name, including joint accounts owned by husband and wife, to pay all loans, overdrafts or other obligations or other indebtedness now or hereafter owing to us by you, either individually or jointly.

We may exercise our right of set off without advance notice to you and without regard to any other right that we may have against you or any other person or entity. We may also freeze or place a hold on your account without setting off in order to investigate any dispute or claim.

Our security interest and right of set off shall continue even after the Account has been closed and will apply to any credit resulting from disputes you initiate or any items received for payment after the Account has been closed. We reserve the right to apply the proceeds of any credit received to the Account, including credits received after the Account is closed, to reduce any outstanding balance you owe us.

Our security interest and right of set off shall prevail and take priority over any claim, change of ownership, pledge, attachment, garnishment, levy, court order or other legal process of any kind whatsoever. Should one of these events occur, we may take any action permitted or required by law.

FOR ACCOUNTS IN INDIANA: All joint depositors specifically agree that the provisions of Indiana Code 32-17-11-17 and 32-17-11-27, regarding the proportion of net contribution by each joint depositor, shall not apply to any charge to an Account under this section, and we shall have the right to deduct from any such Account the amount of any indebtedness due and owing to us from any joint depositor up to and including the entire balance of any such Account without regard to the contribution to the Account.

Closing the Account

You or the Bank can close your Account at any time, for any reason, without advance notice. We may ask that you provide your request to close your Account in writing. We are not required to close the Account at your request until all known authorized or outstanding items (including, but not limited to, checks, ATM, point-of-sale, ACH and other electronic transactions) have been paid from your Account and any outstanding disputes (including but not limited to disputes regarding electronic transfers, ACH transactions or other unresolved internal research requests/disputes concerning the Account) have been resolved. After you or we close the Account, if the Account has a positive balance, we will mail you a check for the final balance, reduced by any amount you owe us. You will still be responsible for any outstanding transactions, or service charges or overdrafts incurred before, during or after the time the Account is closed.

After your Account is closed, we may temporarily reopen your Account to resolve a dispute concerning the Account, or to accept a debit or credit to your Account, even if doing so results in your Account becoming overdrawn. If we temporarily reopen your Account, we may exercise our discretion to return any debit or credit that is received to your Account while your Account is temporarily reopened.
