A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your "file disclosure"). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
  - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
  - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
  - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
  - you are on public assistance;
  - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, all consumers are entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need – usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore
- You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited "prescreened" offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address form the lists these offers are based on. You may opt out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).
- The following FCRA right applies with respect to nationwide consumer reporting agencies:

  CONSUMERS HAVE THE RIGHT TO OBTAIN A SECURITY FREEZE

  You have a right to place a "security freeze" on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit.

  As an alternative to a security freeze, you have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting 7 years.

  A security freeze does not apply to a person or entity, or its affiliates, or collection agencies acting on behalf of the person or entity, with which you have an existing account that requests information in your credit report for the purposes of reviewing or collecting the account. Reviewing the account includes activities related to account maintenance, monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements.

- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore.

A Summary of Your Additional Rights in New York

You have a right to place a "security freeze" on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer credit reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization. A security freeze must be requested in writing by certified or overnight mail. The security freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent.

To place a security freeze on your credit report, you must contact each of these credit reporting agencies:

Equifax Security Freeze
P.O. Box 105788
Atlanta, GA 30348
(800) 685-1111
https://www.freeze.equifax.com

Experian Security Freeze
P.O. Box 9554
Allen, TX 75013
(888) 397-3742
https://www.experian.com/freeze/center.html

TransUnion LLC
P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19022-2000
(888) 909-8872
www.transunion.com/personal-credit/credit-disputes/credit-freezes.page

However, you should be aware that using a security freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit mortgage, government services or payments, insurance, rental housing, employment, investment, license, cellular phone, utilities, digital signature, Internet credit card transaction, or other services, including an extension of credit at point of sale. When you place a security freeze on your credit report, you will be provided a personal identification number or password to use if you choose to remove the freeze on your credit report or authorize the release of your credit report to a specific party or for a period of time after the freeze is in place. To provide that authorization you must contact the consumer credit reporting agency and provide all of the following:

1. The personal identification number or password;
2. Proper identification to verify your identity;
3. The proper information regarding the party or parties who are to receive the credit report or the period of time for which the report shall be available to users of the credit report; and
4. Payment of any applicable fee.

A consumer reporting agency must authorize the release of your credit report no later than three business days after receiving the above information.

A security freeze does not apply to circumstances in which you have an existing account relationship and a copy of your report is requested by your existing creditor or its agents or affiliates for certain types of account review, collection, fraud control or similar activities.

If you are actively seeking credit, you should understand that the procedures involved in lifting a security freeze may slow your application for credit. You should plan ahead and lift a freeze, either completely if you are shopping around, or specifically for a certain creditor, before applying for new credit.

Additional rights under your state's law, which are also in the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, are explained in the enclosed Summary of Your Rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

Dear Cory Rodriguez:

Subject: Mark Dennon

As requested, I am pleased to provide the following information:

Mr. Dennon was hired on September 12, 1995 and admitted as a Partner to PwC on July 01, 2009.

PwC operates on a fiscal year basis from July 01 to June 30 and reports the income to our Partners and Principals on a tax year basis from October 01 to September 30. Accordingly, the Partners' and Principals' share of partnership profits is determined on a fiscal year basis and reported as taxable income on Schedule K-1 from October 01 to September 30. During the year, Partners and Principals receive monthly distributions against their actual share of partnership profits.

As an active Partner, Mr. Dennon shares in partnership profits according to his role/responsibilities. For the fiscal years ended June 30, 2023 and June 30, 2024, Mr. Dennon's share of partnership profits were $1,985,057 and $1,946,422 respectively. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2025, we estimate Mr. Dennon's share of partnership profits will be $1,957,104.

Mr. Dennon is one of more than 4,000 Partners and Principals and his participation in the partnership profits is less than one percent.

Best regards,

James McInturff

Other Wells Fargo Benefits

It's Cybersecurity Awareness Month. Look out for these tell-tale signs to help spot an imposter scam.

Imposters may contact you with a message that:
- is unexpected.
- appears to be from a legitimate source but could be spoofed.
- claims to be urgent and asks you to act right away.
- uses language that manipulates your emotions.
- asks you to pay in an unusually specific way such as gift cards, cryptocurrency or payment apps.

Remember, caller ID can be spoofed, emails can be faked, voices can be cloned, and images can be altered. If you have doubts about the message call the company or government agency directly to find out if there really is a problem. And if they're impersonating Wells Fargo, call us right away or you can always check your account in the Wells Fargo Mobile® app* or online banking.

- If your account has a negative balance:

  Please note that an account overdraft that is not resolved 60 days from the date the account first became overdrawn will result in closure and charge off of your account. In this event, it is important that you make arrangements to redirect recurring deposits and payments to another account. The closure will be reported to Early Warning Services. We reserve the right to close and/or charge-off your account at an earlier date, as permitted by law. The laws of some states require us to inform you that this communication is an attempt to collect a debt and that any information obtained will be used for that purpose.

- In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers:

  Telephone us at the number printed on the front of this statement or write us at Wells Fargo Bank, P.O. Box 6995, Portland, OR 97228-6995 as soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

  1. Tell us your name and account number (if any).
  2. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
  3. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

  We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

- In case of errors or questions about other transactions (that are not electronic transfers):

  Promptly review your account statement within 30 days after we made it available to you, and notify us of any errors.

- Early Pay Day information

  With Early Pay Day, we may make funds from certain eligible direct deposits available for your use up to two days before we receive the funds from your payor. The Bank does not guarantee that any direct deposits will be made available before the date scheduled by the payor, and early availability of funds may vary between direct deposits from the same payor. When funds are made available early, this will be reflected in your account's available balance. Direct deposits made available early with Early Pay Day will not increase your account's ending daily balance, and will not count towards applicable options to avoid your account's monthly service fee, until the deposit posts to your account and is no longer pending (e.g., the pay date scheduled by your payor). Determinations about whether we will authorize and pay transactions and assess overdraft fees are based on an account's available balance. For example, using funds added to your available balance by Early Pay Day may lead to a negative ending daily balance showing on your account and statement while your available balance remains positive and no overdraft fees or returned items result. For interest-bearing accounts, interest on your incoming direct deposit will begin accruing on the business day we receive credit for the deposit from your payor's bank. For additional information about Early Pay Day, please refer to your Deposit Account Agreement.

3 Things to watch out for when shopping online for the holidays

1. Fake Fraud alerts. Be careful if you receive a call or message about a fraudulent purchase. Always contact the merchant, your bank or card provider directly to verify.
2. Bogus shipping notifications. Look out for texts or emails that say there's an issue or problem with your package delivery. Don't click links or open attachments without verifying first.
3. Questionable sellers or sites. Watch out for sellers who pressure you to pay with a payment app, gift card or crypto. Only purchase concert and sporting events tickets from the original legitimate site. Be cautious of buying a new kitten or puppy from a social media ad. Meet the pet in person before paying.

Tip: Use a credit card to make online purchases if you can - it has additional security features built in.

How to donate safely this holiday season

This holiday season, safely support your favorite causes and avoid charity scams. Before donating, research new charities using a resource like Better Business Bureau® or give.org.

ATM Cash Deposit Security Limitations

Effective November 6, 2024, the section of the Deposit Account Agreement titled "Depositing Funds," subsection titled "Our right to decline deposits," is deleted and replaced with the following:

Our right to decline deposits

We may decline all or part of a deposit, including cash, for any reason. This could happen, for example, if a payee isn't a co-owner, authorized signer, or authorized representative on your account, we can't verify an endorsement, the check was issued from a credit account, the dollar amount of the deposit, the check looks suspicious, or it's a non-U.S. item. If we decline a deposit that you mailed to us, we may return it to you at your cost (including charging you for postage and handling to return foreign currency coin or paper), or retain any invalid checks or other documents included in the deposit without crediting your account, at our discretion. There are limits on the total dollar amount of checks that can be deposited at Wells Fargo ATMs per transaction. We may decline ATM check deposits that exceed $1 million. For security reasons there may also be limits on the dollar amount or frequency of cash deposits you can make at Wells Fargo ATMs.

If we cannot verify an endorsement, we can also decline to pay, cash, or send the item for collection. We can require that all endorsers be present and that you deposit the item instead of cashing it.

Non-account owners are not allowed to deposit cash into consumer accounts. For business accounts, any person wanting to make a cash deposit must provide an acceptable form of identification before we accept a cash deposit.

Wells Fargo Deposit Account Agreement: Changes To Consumer Arbitration Agreement And Other Dispute Resolution Provisions

Effective November 6, 2024, we are updating the Wells Fargo Deposit Account Agreement. This includes changes to the dispute resolution provisions. Wells Fargo greatly values and appreciates its relationships with its customers. These changes are designed to ensure that in the unlikely event that a dispute arises between us, that there are streamlined procedures in place to ensure a fair and efficient process in arbitration.

The changes to the arbitration agreement applicable to Consumer Accounts ("Arbitration Agreement" or "Agreement") can be found at pp. 38-39 of the Wells Fargo Deposit Account Agreement, including: (a) the party initiating arbitration must sign the arbitration demand and include certain information in its demand; (b) any party may request to have the arbitration conducted by a video or in-person hearing or through written submissions, with certain exceptions; (c) like in federal court, the arbitrator may issue sanctions or order cost shifting under certain circumstances consistent with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; (d) all issues are for the arbitrator to decide, except that issues relating to whether an arbitration agreement exists or whether a dispute falls within that agreement, or whether the agreement is enforceable, are for a court to decide; and (e) a small claims court will determine whether a dispute falls within its jurisdiction if a party chooses to have a claim brought to such a court.

The updates also include changes to the Additional Terms and Services, located at pp. 42-43 of the Wells Fargo Deposit Account Agreement, including: (a) modifications to the class action waiver applicable in arbitration and litigation; and (b) the addition of a venue provision noting that if the Arbitration Agreement is ever deemed not applicable, then, except for disputes brought in small claims court, the parties consent to the jurisdiction of the state or federal courts in the state whose laws govern the consumer's account.

Important Information You Should Know

- To dispute or report inaccuracies in information we have furnished to a Consumer Reporting Agency about your accounts:

  Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. may furnish information about deposit accounts to Early Warning Services. You have the right to dispute the accuracy of information that we have furnished to a consumer reporting agency by writing to us at Overdraft Collection and Recovery, P.O. Box 5058, Portland, OR 97208-5058. Include with the dispute the following information as available: Full name (First, Middle, Last), Complete address, The account number or other information to identify the account being disputed, Last four digits of your social security number, Date of Birth. Please describe the specific information that is inaccurate or in dispute and the basis for the dispute along with supporting documentation. If you believe the information furnished is the result of identity theft, please provide us with an identity theft report.

- If your account has a negative balance:

  Please note that an account overdraft that is not resolved 60 days from the date the account first became overdrawn will result in closure and charge off of your account. In this event, it is important that you make arrangements to redirect recurring deposits and payments to another account. The closure will be reported to Early Warning Services. We reserve the right to close and/or charge-off your account at an earlier date, as permitted by law. The laws of some states require us to inform you that this communication is an attempt to collect a debt and that any information obtained will be used for that purpose.

- In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers:

  Telephone us at the number printed on the front of this statement or write us at Wells Fargo Bank, P.O. Box 6995, Portland, OR 97228-6995 as soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

  1. Tell us your name and account number (if any).
  2. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
  3. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

  We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

- In case of errors or questions about other transactions (that are not electronic transfers):

  Promptly review your account statement within 30 days after we made it available to you, and notify us of any errors.

- Early Pay Day information

  With Early Pay Day, we may make funds from certain eligible direct deposits available for your use up to two days before we receive the funds from your payor. The Bank does not guarantee that any direct deposits will be made available before the date scheduled by the payor, and early availability of funds may vary between direct deposits from the same payor. When funds are made available early, this will be reflected in your account's available balance. Direct deposits made available early with Early Pay Day will not increase your account's ending daily balance, and will not count towards applicable options to avoid your account's monthly service fee, until the deposit posts to your account and is no longer pending (e.g., the pay date scheduled by your payor). Determinations about whether we will authorize and pay transactions and assess overdraft fees are based on an account's available balance. For example, using funds added to your available balance by Early Pay Day may lead to a negative ending daily balance showing on your account and statement while your available balance remains positive and no overdraft fees or returned items result. For interest-bearing accounts, interest on your incoming direct deposit will begin accruing on the business day we receive credit for the deposit from your payor's bank. For additional information about Early Pay Day, please refer to your Deposit Account Agreement.
